

HAMPTON UNIVERSITY MINISTERS' CONFERENCE
HAMPTON, VIRGINIA 23668

OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY
(757) 727-5340 / (757) 727-5608

MEMORANDUM

TO: Ministers' Conference Attendees

FROM: Rev. Timothy Tee Boddie
Executive Secretary and Treasurer

DATE: February 14, 2001

RE: PRE-CONFERENCE INFORMATION

The Hampton University Ministers' Conference for 2001 is fast approaching, and it promises to be bigger, bolder, and if possible, even better!

Our theme this year is "Reclaiming the Prophetic Position of the Preacher." As usual, all of our main preacher/prophets are nationally acclaimed and spiritually anointed. They are:

Conference Preacher
Reclaiming Prophetic Lifestyle
Reclaiming Prophetic Preparation
Reclaiming Prophetic Passion
Morning Preacher

Rev. Jackie McCullough
Dr. Dennis Proctor
Bishop Adam J. Richardson
Bishop Noel Jones
Rev. John Guns

The Music Department's Co-Directors, Dr. Abbington and Mr. Dillard, have designed a music program for this year's conference that will both support the theme of the Conference, as well as inspire preachers and musicians toward a greater response to their calling. In keeping with this year's Conference theme, the music program will feature workshops with famed gospel music historian, Dr. Horace Boyer; composer and voice teacher, Dr. Uzee Brown; and the return of Dr. Nathan Carter! The team is working to secure the participation of a nationally known recording artist who will share his insights on new Gospel music within the Church program. Finally, the 2001 Conference will highlight the music of hymn writer, Charles Tindley and composer, John Work. A full schedule of presenters and the concert program will appear in the forthcoming Conference newsletter.

I hope you have observed and enjoyed the many noticeable, value-added improvements in nearly every aspect of our conference over the last few years--from better registration service to improved stage/pulpit presentation and greater technology utilization. In just a few days, you will receive your registration brochure.

The cost for the 2001 Conference is as follows:

Pre-registration	$125.00
Music Packet	30.00
Conference tape album	100.00
Seminary Student registration	95.00
On-site registration	150.00
On-site Seminary student registration	120.00

We believe you will agree that the Hampton University Ministers' Conference continues to be the best preacher conference / church music workshop in the country.

Mark your calendars. Early registration ends April 30, 2001. All registrations received after this date will be processed as on-site registration. On-site registration begins Sunday, June 3, 2001, and Conference 2001 officially opens Monday night June 4, 2001, with President Walter S. Thomas' annual prophetic message.

We hope to see you there!
